

Tony Oliveira, Kings County Supervisor

CalPERS Board of Administration

Tony Oliveira, Kings County Supervisor, District 3, was reappointed as the Local Government Representative to the CalPERS Board of Administration in February of 2007 by Governor Schwarzenegger. He represents more than 1,000 local government agencies since he joined the Board in September 2005.

Mr. Oliveira joined the Kings County Board of Supervisors in 1999 after a long career in California agriculture. He was appointed in 2003 to the California State Appeals Board of Hazardous Waste, and in 1999 to the Board of the California Association of Counties, where he served on the Executive Committee and, in 2005, as Treasurer. He serves on the Investment, Benefits and Program Administration and Health Benefits Committees. He is the Chair of the Finance Committee and Vice Chair of the Performance and Compensation Committee.

Since 1971, Mr. Oliveira has been Business Manager and Owner of a 3,500-acre diversified farming operation in Lemoore, California. From 1971 to 2003, he was Business Manager and Partner of the 1,500-cow Oliveira Dairy in Lemoore. He was President and Chief Executive Officer of the Fresh Produce division of Dalget, Inc. from 1984 to 1989 with annual sales exceeding $300 million. Mr. Oliveira also was instrumental in the development of Kings County Environmental Dairy Element, the Kings County Bio-Solids Ordinance, and the Kings County Well drilling and Water Quality Ordinance. He is known nationally as a specialist on the effects of bio-sludge (Class A&B), on agriculture and rural properties.

Mr. Oliveira received a Masters of Business Administration degree from Pepperdine University and attended Harvard Business

School's Executive Management program. He is a resident of Lemoore, is married, and has four daughters and one son.
